

Dave O'Toole

Chief Operating Officer

California State Controller's Office

Dave O'Toole is the Chief Operating Officer at California State Controller's Office. Prior to joining SCO Dave worked as a consultant with the Senate Budget and Fiscal Review Committee and as an analyst with the Department of Finance. During his first stint with SCO from 2007 to 2012, Dave worked as the Policy Director for Controller Chiang, managing legislation and representing the Controller's interests on boards and commissions. Before rejoining SCO, Dave was an internal operations manager at the Department of Business Oversight, the Department of Housing and Community Development and, most recently, the Sacramento regional sanitation districts agency.

Prior to state service, Dave taught high school social studies in Los Angeles, served in the Navy in San Diego, and received his graduate degree in public policy at Georgetown University. Dave is honored to be back at SCO and looks forward to supporting a culture of trust, appreciation, and continuous learning. In his spare time, he jockeys a minivan and four energetic kids. He also enjoys coaching soccer, local politics, exercise, and historical fiction.
